Relaxing with loads of space

A great start to the day

In the morning you enjoy your breakfast coffee on your balcony and admire the view. Meanwhile your partner is doing a small exercise routine. Their running route takes them through the neighbourhood parks and through the area's tree-lined streets. Berlin's northeast has a lot to offer on top of its good local amenities.

My home

You bought the big old bedroom closet years ago, your absolute favourite, and thankfully it fits into your new home. In general, due to the well-designed layout of the apartments, not an iota of space is wasted in Wuhletaler Fenster. Your ground floor apartment also comes with a sweet garden and a terrace.
